Professional Summary

I'm a creative and curious Frontend Developer and UI/UX Designer, just starting out but full of energy and passion for building clean, responsive websites and user-friendly interfaces. I have hands-on experience with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React, and I enjoy turning design ideas into real, working products. I'm also comfortable using tools like Figma, Adobe XD, and Photoshop to bring concepts to life. I'm always eager to learn and grow, and I love collaborating with others to create meaningful digital experiences. My hope is to work on advanced-level projects that challenge me and help me level up my skills.
